ANNOUNCEMENT
ON THE 30TH JUBILEE SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE OF GAVAR STATE UNIVERSITY

We invite lecturers and researchers from higher education institutions in the Republic of Armenia and abroad to participate in the 30th Annual Scientific Conference of Gavar State University, entitled "Current Issues in Natural and Social Sciences." The jubilee conference is dedicated to the 100th anniversary of the birth of Hrant Khachaturi Hakobyan, Honoured Educator of the Republic of Armenia, Founding Rector of Gavar State University, Doctor of Philosophical Sciences, Professor and Honorary Citizen of Gavar.

The conference will be held on 3 April 2027, starting at 11:00 a.m., in a hybrid format (in-person and online participation).

Papers must be submitted electronically by 20 March 2027, in accordance with the conference's content-related and technical requirements.

The working languages of the conference are Armenian, Russian, and English.

The conference will cover the following fields of science: Physical and Mathematical Sciences, Chemical Sciences, Biological Sciences, Technical Sciences, Environmental Sciences, Agricultural Sciences, Historical Sciences, Economics, Philosophy, Philology, Law, Pedagogy, Psychology, Sociology, Political Science, Geography, Geology and Geoecology.

To participate in the conference, applicants are required to complete the online application form by 20 March 2027, using the following link:

http://gsu.am/hy/electroniapplication/

Papers should also be sent to the following GSU email addresses:

info@gsu.am, infogsu@mail.ru

Accepted papers will be presented during the conference and, subject to a favourable peer review, will be published as articles in GSU's scientific journal.

The requirements for conference papers (articles) are outlined below:

1. The scientific paper (article) must be 5–10 pages in length and written in Armenian, Russian or English. It must be prepared electronically on B5-size paper, using the "GHEA Grapalat" font, with 1.12 line spacing and 18 mm margins on all sides. Page numbers must be placed in the footer, centered horizontally, with a 1 cm distance from the edge.

At the top of the paper, the title must be provided in 10.5 pt font size, in uppercase and bold. One line below the title, the Universal Decimal Classification (UDC) code of the article must be indicated in the upper right-hand corner, using 10.5 pt font size (ՀՏԴ, UDC, УДК; see: http://www.udcsummary.info/php/index.php?tag=1&lang=hy).

This must be followed by the author's (authors') surname and first name (in bold), academic degree and academic title (starting on a new line and with a capital letter) and position held (starting on a new line). One line below, the email address(es) of the author(s) must be provided.

After leaving one blank line, the abstract (ամփոփագիր, аннотация) must be presented in the language of the paper, using 10.5 pt font size, bold italics. The abstract should briefly outline the subject of the research, the methods employed, the author's (authors') main conclusions, and any proposals reflecting the scientific novelty of the study.

2. After leaving one blank line, the heading "Keywords" must be written in bold, followed by 5–7 keywords.

3. After leaving two blank lines, the main body of the paper should begin, using 10.5 pt font size. References and in-text citations must be inserted using the word processor's automatic referencing function, with sequential numbering throughout the paper, starting from [1] and continuing to the final reference. The main text must be followed by a section entitled "References", listing all sources cited in the paper.

4. On the last page of the paper, the author must include the following statement: "The material presented in this paper has not been previously published." This statement must be followed by the author's signature (or the signatures of all co-authors) and the date of submission to the Editorial Board, indicating the day, month, and year.

5. The submitted papers (articles) must follow a clear and logical structure:

a) Introduction: This section should justify the relevance of the research subject and present the main research objective, theoretical and practical foundations and the hypothesis being proposed.

b) Main Body: This section should analyze previous scholarly publications on the research topic and current approaches, as well as present the research conducted and the viewpoints of the author(s).

c) Conclusion: This section should present the research findings, including conclusions, recommendations of theoretical and practical significance, the proposed solution to the problem reflecting the scientific novelty of the study, the hypothesis confirmed, predictions and recommendations.

6. At the end of the paper, the following information must be provided in the two other languages listed above, excluding the language in which the paper is written, using 10.5 pt font size: the title of the paper; the surname and first name of the author(s); the author's (authors') academic degree and academic title; the author's (authors') position; the author's (authors') email address(es); an abstract of 150–250 words and keywords.

7. Latin and Greek letters, symbols and mathematical formulae must be created using "Microsoft Equation Editor 3.0." Figure captions and tables must be provided as images, using a 10.5 pt font size.

8. A review of the submitted scientific paper or an appropriate recommendation from the relevant academic department, research supervisor or research institution must also be provided.

Papers that do not meet the specified requirements will not be accepted.

Authors who are not employees of Gavar State University are required to pay a publication fee of AMD 2,000 (two thousand) per page. An additional fee of AMD 3,000 (three thousand) is payable for receiving a printed copy of GSU's "Collection of Scientific Articles."

Payments must be made through any bank to the following account:

Bank: VTB Bank (Armenia) CJSC, Kamo Branch

Account number: 16021100146800

Payment must be made only after the Editorial Board of GSU's scientific journal has confirmed acceptance of the article, and within five days of receiving the confirmation.
